Networking Insight: Book Review: Breakthrough Networking ...

Lillian defines networking as "an active, dynamic process that links people into mutually beneficial relationships." In her explanation, she explores concepts such as 300 x 300, six degrees of separation, and networking is an art and a skill. By providing a good framework for what networking is, you get a good sense that Lillian knows what she is talking about. She then sets the stage for the rest of the book by helping readers determine their networking styles.
