The languages of Estonia (Estonian) and Hungary (Hungarian) are a part of the Finno-Ugric branch of the language tree. However, they hardly resemble each other in a comparison. Estonian is related to the Finnish language, while Hungarian is more closely related to languages of western Siberia. These languages are famously difficult for English speakers to learn, though the fact that they use a Latin alphabet is one fewer obstacle English-speaking students have to hurdle in their attempts to ...
